

Michael L. Rich
Assistant Professor of Law
Capital University Law School

Professor Michael Rich is an Assistant Professor of Law at Capital University Law School. Before coming to Capital, Professor Rich practiced with the Cincinnati law firm of Vorys Sater Seymour & Pease LLP, where his practice focused primarily on government fraud litigation under the civil False Claims Act, civil rights litigation, and white-collar criminal cases. In addition, he served as law clerk to the Hon. Susan J. Dlott of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio. Professor Rich began his legal career at the New York law firm of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, where his practice focused on the litigation of claims under the First Amendment seeking access to public property and public accommodations.

Professor Rich's areas of research include criminal law, civil and criminal white-collar litigation, police investigatory methods, and government fraud. He is the author of Prosecutorial Indiscretion: Encouraging the Department of Justice to Rein in Out-of-Control Qui Tam Litigation under the Civil False Claims Act, to be published in 76 U. CIN. L. REV. ___ (anticipated summer 2008).

Professor Rich holds a J.D. from Stanford Law School, and a B.A., magna cum laude, in Physics and English from the University of Delaware.
